

Coordinator - Indigenous Youth Engagement

Our Mission:

Partners for Youth Inc. engages youth who are facing challenges in their lives and assists them in becoming capable, connected and contributing members of their communities. We achieve our mission by developing innovative programs and services that promote experiential learning in safe, supportive, and rewarding environments. Our work is done in collaboration with public, private and not-for-profit partners.

Job Overview:

Partners for Youth Inc., is looking to hire a fulltime coordinator for Indigenous Youth engagement.

This position is a front line staff position with additional roles and responsibilities related to program development and program logistics.

This position will work in partnership with other staff and as a member of our organization team to expand innovative and youth centered programming with Indigenous youth across New Brunswick, specifically but not limited to: violence prevention, healthy relationships and youth mental health.

Experience and education directly related to Indigenous culture is required. Preference will be given to candidates of Indigenous ancestry. An educational background in social work, education or the humanities would be considered an asset.

Experience and knowledge in:

- program delivery,
- youth engagement,
- promoting youth healthy relationships,
- youth mental health,
- substance abuse, and/or
- working with youth at risk would be an asset for this position.

Located from our head office in Fredericton, this is a 1-year contract position, with potential for renewal, with competitive wages and benefits. A valid driver's license is required for this position.

Please reply with a cover letter, resume and 3 references by email to jsharp@RVL.ca.

Only those invited for an interview will be contacted. No phone calls please.